Plagiarism and Collusion

Plagiarism : to use or pass off as one's own, the writings or ideas of another without acknowledging or crediting the source from which the ideas are taken.

Collusion : submitting an assignment, project or report completed by another person and passing it off as one's own (as defined in the NTU Honour Code (<http://academicintegrity.ntu.edu.sg>)).

I understand the nature of plagiarism to include the reproduction of someone else's words, ideas or findings and presenting them as my own without proper acknowledgement.

I understand that there are many forms of plagiarism which include direct copying or paraphrasing from someone else's published work (either electronic or hard copy) without acknowledging the source; using facts, information and ideas derived from a source without acknowledgement; producing assignments (required to be independent) in collaboration with and/or using the work of other people; and assisting another person to commit an act of plagiarism.

I understand that the work submitted may be reproduced and/or communicated by the University or a third party authorized by the University for the purpose of detecting plagiarism.

Penalties for Plagiarism and Collusion

The penalties associated with plagiarism reflect the seriousness with which NTU view cheating, and its commitment to academic integrity. This could include the award of a failing grade for the assignment (or the course), or expulsion from the University. This policy applies to all work submitted, including oral presentations and/or written work.

Keep a copy of the Assignment

Be sure to make a copy of your work. If you have submitted your assignment electronically, also make a backup copy.

Declaration

I declare that this assignment is my own work, unless otherwise referenced, as defined by the NTU policy on plagiarism. I have read the NTU Honour Code and Pledge.
